What to Expect

Training at Igor's Headquarters can be a great way to learn about Igor technology and get hands-on experience with the Igor team. During the training, there is a professional development session to discuss marketing ideas, sales strategies, learn about the product roadmap, and network with Igor employees. Attendees also enjoy getting to know others in similar or complementary fields – several business connections have been made at our onsite training!

Your registration includes:

- 1.5 days of structured training
- An optional afternoon session (subject matter varies) on Day 2
- Light breakfast snacks and coffee on both days
- Lunch and dinner on Day 1
- Post-training materials
- Access to training videos archive
- Certificate of attendance
- Access to future tests for additional certifications upon release

Attendees are responsible for the following:

- All transportation to/from West Des Moines
- All transportation to/from the training location
- Hotel or other accommodations
- Any additional meals, entertainment, or expenses not covered by the registration fee

VISITING IGOR

We look forward to welcoming you to our corporate headquarters in West Des Moines!
